

MEETING ROOM POLICY

The Campbell County Cooperative Extension Service meeting rooms are intended primarily for Extension sponsored functions, but the various support groups of the Extension program and community organizations of educational, cultural or civic nature may use the meeting rooms. The Extension District Board or any of the affiliate organizations accepts no responsibility for any loss, injury or damage to persons or property arising from use of the facility. The Cooperative Extension Service is an equal opportunity organization with respect to education and employment. Educational programs of the Cooperative Extension Service serve all people regardless of race, color, age, sex, religion, disability, or national origin. Signing this form is indicative of your compliance with these regulations.

- 1) Scheduling: Scheduling will be on a first come first serve basis with Extension meetings receiving first priority. An adult over 21 must complete and sign the reservation form. Meetings not involving an Extension Agent may not be scheduled nor confirmed more than 1 month in advance. (Note exception in #3). The Campbell County Extension Service reserves the right to cancel and/or reschedule all meetings with two weeks notice. Two hours must be left between meetings to allow time for clean up and set up.
- 2) Prioritized Use: The following groups receive priority scheduling:
 - * Campbell County Extension Agent's educational programs
 - * Campbell County Extension Groups: Extension Council, District Board, 4-H and Homemaker Councils, Agriculture and Horticulture Advisory Groups and other county-wide Extension organizations such as 4-H and Homemaker clubs.
 - * Area and State Extension Groups: Area or state meetings, workshops or staff conferences.
 - * Extension Support Groups: Groups outside the umbrella of Campbell County Extension but whose programs are related to the goals and objectives of the Extension Service. Examples would be Farm Bureau, County Government, Mayors meetings, and civic and cultural, non-profit groups.
- 3) Continuing meeting dates (a certain day of each month, for example) will not be granted unless Extension related. Extension Groups may schedule up to 2 months in advance.
- 4) Use of alcohol or tobacco products at any meeting is prohibited. Pets are not allowed in the meeting rooms.
- 5) Use will be limited to Meeting Rooms A, B, and C. The Board Room and Workshop may only be scheduled if an Extension Agent is present or special permission is granted by a duly authorized representative. Any Extension Agent or a duly authorized representative may enter the facility at all times during any and all occupancies.
- 6) One adult supervisor per 10 children. Appropriate behavior must be maintained as other rooms may be in use by other groups. Disruptive behavior will result in future denial of use of the facility.
- 7) Appropriate clothing: including shirts and shoes must be worn at all times in compliance with health regulations.
- 8) User will be responsible for damages to facility and contents (which will include the audio visual equipment) and will not be allowed further use of the building until all damages are repaired. All damages beyond normal wear and tear due to user's negligence are the responsibilities of the user.
- 9) Person signing application and picking up key, if necessary, will attend scheduled meeting. If this is not the case, Extension personnel must be notified and responsible person must sign application.
- 10) Building must be vacated by 10:30 p.m., except those meetings involving an Extension Agent.
- 11) Users are responsible for the pick up and return of keys if the meeting is at a time when no authorized Extension personnel will be in the building. Keys will only be released to person signing meeting room policy. Keys must be returned immediately following meeting.
- 12) Refreshments/coffee are the responsibility of the using organization and will not be provided by the Extension Service. The Campbell County Extension Service will not provide any kitchen or eating utensils such as paper products, dishes or flatware unless an Extension Agent is present.
- 13) User is responsible for properly disposing of all garbage and seeing that the meeting room(s) are left in an appropriate condition. User must also return room to original set-up as specified on sheet.
- 14) If any of the above rules and guidelines are not followed this will result in future denial of use of the facility.

I have read the meeting room policy regarding use of Extension facilities and equipment and agree to adhere to the policy statement.
