

Campbell County Homemakers Clubs

Claryville Homemakers

Claryville is a socially oriented club sharing fun and activities with members. They plan outings for the group during the summer months. In addition to enjoying fellowship among members, the club makes donations to different community organizations. Claryville has a family thy support by donations of food and gifts, especially during the holidays. They have two auctions a year of used items donated by their members to build the treasury for their donations.

Time of Meeting: 9:30 am on the 1st Tuesday of every month
Place of meeting: Plum Creek Baptist Church
Contact: Linda Booth 859-635-0699

Crazy Quilters

Crazy Quilters are women who meet together and bring their own quilting, crocheting, or knitting to work on with others working on similar projects. They get to share ideas, give support and help each other as they work. It is an opportunity to learn new skills and techniques from each other. Two retreats are planned each year at Blue Ridge State Park, usually in the spring and fall, as a time to get away to work and create without any distractions. A quilt vendor is on site at the retreat for needed supplies, fabrics, and new projects.

Time of Meeting: 9:00 (flexible) on the 3rd Monday of every month
Place of meeting: Campbell County Extension office

Valley Homemakers

Valley Homemakers Club emphasizes service, volunteering, to others and community. The focus has been on the Military Lounge at CVG by making dolls for the military families, making pillows for children at various children's homes and centers, and making tray favors for the veteran's holiday meals at the Fort Thomas Veteran's Hospital. Our members extend their service to many local churches and local missions. Valley also enjoys making sewing and craft projects at meetings.

Time of meetings: 10:00 am Every 2nd Tuesday of the month

Campbell County Homemakers Clubs

WannaBees

A paper crafting club whose members make greeting cards and other paper crafts that can be used as gifts or can be for members personal use at home or office. The group consists of around 20 members who began as a monthly class which later converted to a homemakers club. There is no charge for the materials used but a monthly donation is accepted to help buy materials for future projects.

Time of meetings: 10:00 am usually on one Tuesday a month but changes days occasionally.

Place: Campbell County Extension Office

Mailbox Members

Mailbox members are homemaker members who because of other commitments are unable to attend regularly scheduled meetings. These women, because of their interest in the Homemaker's programs and information want to be kept informed. By joining the Homemaker's organization they receive the Campbell County Extension Newsletter and any updates or flyers that contain information about upcoming programs and events. They are free to participate in any of these events or programs.
